
Lahnstein, 28th February 2017 / Lahnpaper with new internet presence

Important information about Lahnpaper and products optimized for mobile devices

The website www.lahnstein.de shines with a new design and new look. It has been completely up-dated and adjusted to present usage practices.

Customers and users can receive detailed information about Lahnpaper products, applications and the product development area. Via the contact function, you can also send questions and messages directly to the responsible Lahnpaper expert. The website www.lahnpaper.de is available in English and German. The content is retrievable via most browsers and especially on mobile devices.

Contact: Detlef Stoltefaut / phone: +49 2621 177 600 / e-mail: d.stoltefaut@lahnpaper.de

About Lahnpaper GmbH

LAHNPAPER is with an annual turnover of approx. 47 Mio. € a mid-sized company of the Kajo Neukirchen Group in Eschborn near Frankfurt and a leading manufacturer of synthetic papers, impregnated special papers and nonwovens. With a special paper machine and flexible production possibilities LAHNPAPER is market leader in selected market segments. The company employs around 180 people.